- WHAT : The Philadelphia Tax Reform Commission (TRC) will hear status reports from working groups on business, wage, property taxes and other revenue and spending issues. These groups were created to provide more in-depth research and analysis on policy questions and determine what impact proposed tax relief solutions could have on residents and businesses.
- WHEN: Wednesday, May 21, 2003 from 8:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
- WHERE: One Parkway, 1515 Arch Street (at 16th Street), 18th floor, City Planning Historical Commission Room (18-029).
- WHY: Philadelphia voters last November approved a ballot referendum to create a tax reform commission to recommend ways that taxes can be restructured or reduced. The Commission is currently studying taxes and tax relief solutions for a final report to be presented to the Mayor and City Council.
